Milan, January 10. N. S.

THE Chancellor and President of the Council of this State have set out from hence, in order to confer with Count Thaun at his Quarters in the Ecclesiastical Territories. Our last Advices from those Parts say, the Mareschal de Thessé has been so urgent in his Applications to the Court of Rome against an Accommodation with the Emperor, that he has delayed the Pope's declaring himself on that Subject; but in the mean time Orders are sent to the Archbishop of Genoa, to send back two Vessels, which were arrived there with Soldiers from Avignon; and Orders were also sent to some Forces which were advanced as far as Brignole in Provence, to halt 'till they received further Instructions. There are also Letters which say, that the Difficulties which appeared the greatest are already conquered, and that the only Circumstance which delays the Execution of the Treaty at present, is, that the Court of Rome insists that his Imperial Majesty shall be engaged to protect the Ecclesiastical Territories from the Invasion of any other Prince; but the Marquis de Prié answers, that he is not empowered to do any thing against the Interests of the Duke of Modena. They write from Naples, that the Vessels laden with warlike Stores for the Garrisons in Tuscany, have set sail: They are very impatient in that City to hear what Resolutions the British and Dutch Fleet will take in the present Conjuncture. The Troops which lye on the Frontiers of the Ecclesiastical State are ready to march; and 'tis said, that Count Thaun is resolved to march on, to support the Negotiations of the Imperial Minister.

Hamburg, January 25. N. S. The Imperial Minister residing here has transmitted to the Court of Vienna the Apology which Mr. Krumholtz delivered to him: Mr. Krumholtz endeavours, in that Memorial, to vindicate himself from the Aspersions he lyes under, as the chief Agent of the disaffected Party in this City, and as one who has animated them to undertake all the Outrages which have been committed against Publick Authority. Our last Advices from Stockholm say, That they have been some time without Intelligence from his Swedish Majesty, and that they are in some fear the Courier which carried the News of the Death of the Dutchess Dowager of Holstein-Gottorp, may be taken by the Enemy. Letters from Poland report, that King Stanislaus and the Great Mareschal of the Crown have made mutual Advances towards an Accommodation. 'Tis said also, that they have agreed upon certain Articles of a Treaty, of which the French King and the Pope are made Guarantees.

Hague, February 1. N. S. They write from Cologne, that notwithstanding the great Endeavours of the Nuncio residing there, to oppose the Conclusion of the Treaty to settle the Differences between the King of Prussia and that City, the Accommodation was made on the 16th of the last Month on the following Considerations; 1st, That a Deputation shall be sent to the King of Prussia, from the Magistracy of Cologne, to give his Majesty the most solemn Assurances, that the Governors of the Place were no way concerned in the Outrage committed by the Students upon the House of his Resident, and to desire his Majesty to restore that City to the Honour of his Friendship. 2dly, That those Deputies shall be well received by that King, and admitted to kiss his hand. 3dly, That the Magistrates shall repair the Damage done to the Resident-House, and punish the Authors of the Insult done to it. 4thly, That the Resident shall at present make use of the Chapel allotted for the Garrison in the City, reserving to himself the Right of having the Exercise of his Religion in his own Family, as he shall think fit, according to the Law of Nations. Lastly, That the Magistrates shall pay the Resident all the Honours due to his Character, in the same manner as they treat other Ministers; and that this Accommodation shall be signed and ratified by his Prussian Majesty, within the space of two Months, from the above-mentioned Day of the last Month. They write from Dresden of the 23d past, That the Carnaval is begun in that Place; and that, in the mean time, frequent Conferences are held upon the present Conjuncture of Affairs, and the levying new Troops. Advices from the Upper Poland, and several Parts of Lithuania, repeat the Mention of a Battel between the Swedes and Muscovites, in which the latter had the Disadvantage.
